Why is my expected CI higher or lower than I thought it would be?

Gershwin Marks - 2020-11-19 - Comments (0) - Frequently Asked Questions

Question:

Why is my expected CI higher or lower than I thought it would be?

Answer:

The Beta Shift Factor sets the weight for inspections in relation to the expected CI Value. The attached document was written by USACE Research Civil Engineer Dr. Michael Grussing and explains the BUILDER Beta-Shift Parameter.

Please see BUILDER Beta-Shift Parameter for more detailed information

- Tags
- beta
- Beta-Shift
- CI
- score